

Day Solar Report:- Northwestern Observatory, Spokane, Washington. (Single Unit Report)

Date: 31 August, 1958-

Times: 1705 — 1715 — 1716 <sup>Spectroheliograph</sup> — 1805 — no photos — projection —

Sky Condition: Clear - deep, dark-blue sky - some wind -

Solar Limb: only fair - solar disk light, "washed-out" appearance -

Apparatus Used: projection - Spectroheliograph (H $\alpha$ ) - no photos -

Remarks: Observer:- Parmenter -

In spite of deep, rich-blue sky, solar disk appeared "washed-out" - and prominences "weak" - no photography attempted -